conditions are being talked of, not only in the Senate, but elsewhere. The conditions cannot long be borne with by the American republic. Something must be done and something will be done. We are told that Governor Lind is being sent to Mexico. But he goes not as an ambassador. He has no power to protect American citizens or American property. He goes simply as the personal representative of the President. Yet every day more and more American property is being destroyed and more American citizens.

sections to hold back returns, coupled with the fact that some counties are far from railway lines and telegraph offices, there seems to be some probability of repeating the Brown-Koiner affair of four years ago, when it was a week after the primary before the result in that contest could be stated with certainty. In many counties throughout the State the Democratic committees met at the county seats to-cay to receive the returns from the precinct officers and certify the result to the State Democratic Committee. These meetings will probably result in some corrections of unofficial figures sent out, and if promptly reported will determine the issue very shortly.
